Description of Activity:

1) Job Fair

On Friday, November 16, 2018, WHMI sponsored and participated in the MAB job fair at Lansing Community College in Lansing, Michigan. From 12-1:30pm, WHMI management was available to discuss career opportunities at WHMI, and answer questions about the necessary skills and requirements of pursuing a career in radio broadcasting. We spoke with approximately 25 attendees.

2) Internship Program

WHMI-FM welcomes students from area universities and colleges who are seeking experience in Broadcasting and Business environments. Students must be enrolled in a program related to the broadcasting industry, and their internship must be endorsed, supported, and constantly monitored by the sponsoring university. Students are rewarded with course credit hours upon completion of the semester-long program. During the third quarter 2018, WHMI-FM hosted a student intern from Specs Howard School of Broadcast Arts. The Production intern worked with the Creative Director and Operations Manager.

5) Job Shadow Day

On Friday, 11/30/2018, a student from Brighton High School participated in a Job Shadow day. She was here to meet with Debbie Platt, General Sales Manager, Dion Clark, Production director, Sue Masek Sales assistant, and met with two of the sales executives. She arrived at the station by 9:00 a.m.

Sue Masek took her on a tour of the radio station. She was able to see the different departments of the radio station.

With Debbie Platt, they learned the sales side of radio. She participated in creating sales proposals with two of the sales executives -David McClure and Mike Bonenberger. She learned the multi phases of sales - prospecting, proposal writing, selling, and servicing various businesses.

She facilitated with finalizing our upcoming on-air promotion – “Pick your Present”. She coordinated with the different business sponsors to match the sponsor with the particular prize they are giving away in this promotion. She learned how to use promotional opportunities as a tool to help sell advertising to the different businesses.

She spent some time with Dion Clark. She saw how Dion receives the information he needs to complete a creative copy message. He explained to her the necessary elements needed to write the commercial copy. She spent time in the production studio and was able to see how radio commercials are produced. She saw the process of creating the audio and how it is put in to the computer system so it can be heard on the air.

She was able to see the news department and see how the news is recorded and produced. Julie Wood enabled her to sit in the studio and witness a live radio program.

6) Station Self Assessment:

On 3/21/2019, Rod Krol, President, Kris Krol, Business Manager, Rich Renko, General Sales Manager, Reed Kittredge, Operations Manager and Fran Campbell, Office Manager, met to discuss the stations effectiveness in making sure that the Wide Dissemination being conducted is bringing in a diverse pool of applicants. Since last year's annual assessment we had one opening for General Sales Manager position. We interviewed one candidate from Cleary University that was added to our recruitment list in 2016. We also added paid recruitment sources to this General Sales Manager position that produced results. We added Media Recruiter which resulted in one interview and we added Inside Radio which produced three interviews. We will continue to evaluate our recruitment resources going forward. We will keep the master recruitment list in-tact. In addition we assessed the following:

1. Whether we regularly convey our EEO program to employees and applicants. The station has EEO notices posted on our bulletin board, on job applications, in on air announcements and located on the station web site. In compliance.
2. Our seniority practices, to ensure that they are not discriminatory. In compliance.
3. Our salary and benefits programs, to ensure they provide equal pay for equal work and are not in any discriminatory manner. In compliance.
4. Promotions, to ensure they are not based on any discriminatory practices. In compliance.
5. Whether we have avoided any indication in our recruiting advertisements that there is any preference for persons of particular race, national origin or gender. In compliance.
6. Union agreements, if they exist, to make sure that they provide for equal opportunities for all. Not applicable.
7. Selection techniques, to avoid tests or other hiring evaluation techniques that could be discriminatory in effect. In compliance.

7) Scholarship

WHMI-FM has implemented a $1,000 academic scholarship program for local high school students. Upper-level station management established the scholarship criteria, assessed the eligible entries and awarded the spring 2019 scholarship to a senior at Hartland High School who will be attending Florida State University in the fall 2019 to study Broadcast Meteorology.

8) Station Tour

On Wednesday, April 3, 2019, 7 children and 1 adult from Den 345 in Brighton arrived at 4:15pm for a station tour. Reed Kittredge, Operations Manager showed them the broadcast facility, they were given demonstrations of technical equipment and were introduced to the staff and management and corresponding responsibilities were described. Dion Clark, Creative Director showed them how commercials are produced and helped them record their own commercial. They spent some time with Jon King, News Director learning how the news is gathered and produced. They were here at the station for about an hour.

9) Station Tour
