

THE EDMUND FITZGERALD AND BASEBALL

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15 • 7 PM

The Great Lakes freighter Edmund Fitzgerald sank during a Lake Superior storm on November 10, 1975, and although there have been many ships that have sunk on the Great Lakes, the Fitzgerald is probably the most famous. This presentation will explore the history of the Edmund Fitzgerald, its sinking, Canadian Gordon Lightfoot's memorable song, and the fascinating connection to baseball.
