

NEW BOOK ALERT FROM DAVE COVERLY!

Andrews McMeel Publishing®

THE ULTIMATE CANINE COMIC COLLECTION

Since its debut in April 1994, Dave Coverly's Speed Bump cartoons have delighted audiences with their hilariously absurd takes on life, especially when it comes to man's best friend. This collection brings together his best canine-themed comics from the past decade, exploring everything from Westminster Dog Show after-parties to the deep philosophical mysteries of squeaky toys.

Dave Coverly (shown here with Macy, the real brains behind the operation) is a four-time winner of the National Cartoonists Society's "Best in Newspaper Panels," as well as the winner of the prestigious Reuben Award for "Outstanding Cartoonist of the Year" in 2009. Speed Bump has been published for over 30 years by Creators and runs in hundreds of publications, including The Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times and the Detroit Free Press. He's also the principle illustrator for BarkBox and donates much of his time and work to animal rights organizations, especially PETA and The Humane World for Animals. He lives in Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he works out of an attic studio in his home.
